WAN-IFRAs Media Leaders Summits address the biggest questions facing change-makers and top executives at news publishers around the world.

The news media industry is going through a seismic shift, trying to cope with disruptions to its traditional business models. The pandemic has exposed the vulnerabilities of relying primarily on advertising revenue, proving that those who pivoted to audience-centric approach with unique and value added content, were rewarded with an increase in digital revenues.

The goal of the Media Leaders Summits is to provide insights, trends and best practices that allow decision makers to re-evaluate business strategies, return to stability and ultimately, achieve long-term sustainability for their news organisations.
